

OxMorph2 - The Second Oxford Workshop on Romance Morphology

“Autonomous Morphology in Diachrony: The Romance Languages (and Beyond)”

Workshop programme

Friday, 8 October
13:30-13:50	Registration and coffee
13: 50-14:00	Opening
	Chair: Silvio Cruschina
14:00-14:50	MARTIN MAIDEN ‘Semi-autonomous’ morphology? Problems in the history of the Romanian verb
15:00-15:50	MICHELE LOPORCARO On the genesis of the subject clitic progressive construction in Pantiscu
16:00-16:50	CHIARA CAPPELLARO Overabundance in diachrony: A case study
17:00-17:50	STEVEN KAYE Stem alternation in Northern Talyshi
	Coffee break: 10 minutes between talks

Saturday, 9 October
	Chair: Maria Goldbach
09:30-10:20	STEPHEN ANDERSON Stem Alternations in Swiss Rumantsch
10:30-11:20	JOHN CHARLES SMITH The morphome as a gradient phenomenon?
11:30-12:20	SILVIO CRUSCHINA Beyond the stem and inflectional morphology: an irregular pattern at the level of periphrasis
12:30-14:30	Lunch
	Chair: John Charles Smith
14:30-15:20	NIGEL VINCENT Compositionality and change in conditionals and counterfactuals in Latin and Romance

15:30-16:20	MARIA GOLDBACH Syncretism at the interface? Diachronic analysis of syncretism in Italo- and Gallo-Romance
16:30-17:20	LOUISE ESHER Future and conditional in Occitan: a non-canonical morpheme?
	Coffee break: 10 minutes between talks
17:30-19:00	Poster session
20:00	Conference dinner

Sunday, 10 October
	Chair: Martin Maiden
09:30-10:20	MARK ARONOFF Stems in French verbal morphology
10:30-11:20	MARC-OLIVIER HINZELIN Verb morphology gone astray: (northern) Gallo-Romance syncretism patterns and their relevance for autonomous morphology in comparison to Ibero-Romance and southern Occitan
11:30-12:20	Paul O'Neill Morphemes and Morphosyntactic Features
	Coffee break: 10 minutes between talks
13:00	Pub lunch (Cape of Good Hope)

POSTERS

VALENTINA LYUSINA (Moscow State University)
Paradigms with the velar increment in Romance languages: a problem of interpretation

MARTINA DA TOS (University of Padua)
The Italian 'FINIRE type' verbs: a case of morphomic attraction

YUSUKE KANAZAWA (Kyoto University)
On the development of verbs including the infix ng in Campidanian Sardinian

MONTERRAT ADAM-AULINAS (Universitat de Barcelona)
The equalization of thematic vowels in the first and second persons plural of the present tense: the cases of Occitan and Catalan

CLAIRE MEUL (Katholieke Universiteit Leuven)
The fate of the verbal 'infix' –ID(I)- in the Dolomitic Ladin, Peri-Ladin, Central-Northern Venetian and Western Friulian dialects of Northern Italy